

House Resolution No. 1598

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives hold in high esteem those Show-Me State educators who have devoted a considerable amount of time and energy to ensuring the highest quality learning environment for each generation of future societal leaders; and

Whereas, Bob Sink has been a coach and teacher for thirty-seven years, thirty-four of which have been in Industrial Arts at Jackson High School in the Jackson R-II School District; and

Whereas, Bob Sink admirably prepared for his career endeavors by studiously applying himself to courses which resulted in his earning a Bachelor's degree in education on May 21, 1967, from Central State in Oklahoma and a Master's degree on August 11, 1973, from Southeast Missouri State University; and

Whereas, on Thursday, April 22, 2004, Bob Sink will receive justifiable honors and accolades when he is presented with one of four Educator of the Year Awards from the Jackson Chamber of Commerce at a banquet which will be held at the Knights of Columbus Hall; and

Whereas, the competition for Educator of the Year recognition involved a one-page questionnaire and a fifteen-minute interview with the seven-member Chamber Education Committee which was chaired by Linda Puchbauer; and

Whereas, the four Educator of the Year Awards recognize the achievements of educators whose focus in work can be categorized as either kindergarten through grade five, grades six through nine, grades ten through twelve, or such non-traditional assignments as specialty teachers, administrators, librarians, and counselors; and

Whereas, Bob Sink of Gordonville is devoted to his wife, Sharon, and their son, Corey:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, join unanimously to applaud the well-deserved selection of Bob Sink for a Jackson Chamber of Commerce Educator of the Year Award and to convey to him this legislative body's heartiest best wishes for continued personal and professional success for many more years to come; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Bob Sink of the Jackson R-II School District.
